ORDER DENYING APPLICATION TO ASSUME ORIGINAL JURISDICTION AND MOTION FOR EMERGENCY STAY

This case comes to the Constitutional Court as an Application and Petition to Assume Original Jurisdiction and Motion for Emergency Stay. After consideration on the Application and the Response this court denies said Application to Assume Original Jurisdiction and the Motion for Emergency Stay. The District Court's Order of July 8, 2024, clearly states. "Upon Defendant's appearance before the court, this matter shall be set for further hearing on the amount and conditions of Defendant's bond." At this time this Court does not wish to accept original jurisdiction and upset the process of the district court.

Wherefore, the Application and Petition to Assume Original Jurisdiction and Motion for Emergency Stay is denied.

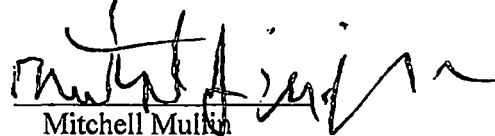

IT IS SO ORDERED:

David A. Burrage
CHIEF JUSTICE

Frederick Bobb

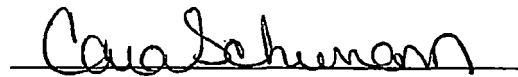

Mitchell Mulkin
